

News Alert

Thursday 16th October, 2008

Mick Keogh to address AGM

Mick Keogh, Executive Director of the Australian Farm Institute will be guest speaker at the Mallee Sustainable Farming Inc Annual General Meeting with his address entitled "Climate Change Issues and its Effects on Farmers: The meeting will be held at the Hotel Mildura on Friday 17th October and commence at 1.30pm.

Also to be considered at this meeting will be changes to the MSF Constitution as well as the introduction of a broader range of membership categories.

All media are welcome.

Mick Keogh

Executive Director, Australian Farm Institute

Background:

- Executive Director, Australian Farm Institute
- Previously, General Manager Policy, NSW Farmers' Association
- Worked for ten years as an agricultural management consultant, for both private and public sector clients
- Previously, research officer at University of NSW
- Obtained a BSc and MSc in Wool & Pastoral Sciences at University of NSW
- Grew up on, and continues to be involved in a mixed-farming enterprise based in southern NSW

For more information contact Victoria Adams on 03 5021 9104